The University

HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION

THE LANDS OF THE ABOVE-NAMED ASSOCIAtion are situated in San Francisco and are eligibly and most desirably located, adjoining the grounds purchased by the Presbyterian University Society, on which College buildings are to be at once erected. The site is less than thirty minutes ride from Montgomery street; lying just west or back of the lands of the South San Francisco Homestead and Railroad Association and the Bay View Park, almost within a stone's throw of ST. MARY'S COLLEGE.

The tract will require little or no grading, there being scarcely a single lot on which it would not be unsafe to build without any change of grade. It commands a

Beautiful View of the Bay,

And its opposite shore, and has a soil of extreme richness. So great are the natural attractions of the spot that very many of the wealthy citizens of San Francisco have already purchased whole blocks in the same tract, and design building residences thereon.

The Rev. E. Thomas, D. D.,

Is President of the Association; Lester L. Robinson formerly Vice President of the Sacramento Railroad Company, is the Treasurer, and Thomas B. Lewis, formerly of Portland, Secretary.

Four lots, 25x120 feet each, constitute a share, costing $315—paid in monthly instalments of $10 each, after the first payment of $20 has been made.

Maps and books giving full information of the workings of the Association can be obtained at the store of J. L. PARRISH & CO.

It is an easy and a cheap way for young men to procure property which will in a few years make them independent.

Shortly after his arrival he entered upon a course of dissipation and finally fell into the clutches of the gamblers. Chief Crowley was informed of the facts while Brownlingfield was in the hands of the gamblers, and with Captain Lees he attempted to find the poor dupe and save some of his money for him and have the swindlers punished, but the gamblers got wind of the movements on foot and Brownlingfield was clandestinely shipped off to Marysville, where he was abandoned in a helpless condition without money and senseless from excessive drinking. THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 10, 1867.

The Illinois Experiment.

Illinois was the first State to attempt, by a legislative enactment, to make eight hours a day's work. Probably it will also be the last State to try such a project. The scheme has proved an utter failure, as was generally foreseen. The only wonder is that the Legislature of a State should have been so irrational as to believe that the end in view could be attained by such an enactment.

The fact that ours is a popular Government, and that the working classes have unbounded political power, which party managers are always anxious to conciliate and attach to their own interest, is undoubtedly the great reason why such blunders are committed and such absurdities ventured upon. Whether this eight hour law in its original idea was or was not a device to secure the votes of working-men we cannot undertake to say; but it is not too much to suppose that the fallacies lurking in it would have been pointed out and its enactment prevented, had it not been that the members of the body which had the subject under consideration were anxious to evince their good will for the working classes, and avoid giving offense to to those who are invested with so much political power. The question was up, and men could not consent to rest under the charge of being hostile to the interests of labor, which they would have been compelled to face had they opposed the act. This is the probable explanation of the Illinois experiment. A better knowledge among the people of the laws and relations of labor and capital will prevent errors like this from being repeated, for the people will then be too wise to be deceived by such transactions. But it is just as well that this experiment has been made, as its results have been more satisfactory than any that could have been reached by a different mode. It has taught truths that could not have been forced on some minds by any amount of abstract reasoning.

Nobody thinks of denying the right of workmen either as individuals or in combination to decide what they are willing to receive. But employers, either seperately or in concert, have just the same right to decide what they will pay, as workmen have to determine what they ought to have. If workmen are not willing to receive the wages offered, that is their privilege. If the employers are not willing to yield to the demands of the operatives, a like privilege belongs to them. The price of labor will be settled just as the price of iron and sugar is regulated. Everybody will know these things by and by, and the experiment which has been made in Illinois will do much toward making people acquainted with them.

Democracy Unmasked.

The New York Day Book, a paper which claims to have the largest circulation of any Democratic journal in the United States, demands therefore the right to be heard as an exponent of Democratic principles. The recovery of Connecticut it regards as a splendid victory, the philosophy of which it interprets as follows:

> Of all the Northern States the Democracy of Connecticut have the truest and most honest leaders. Men like Thomas H. Seymour, William W. Eaton and John Cotton Smith kept the heart of her rank and file sound, compact and true. They preserved something substantial to rally upon. But take those States where the Democratic organization went pell-mell into the war, and tried to out-Herod the mongrel party—when will they recover? Look at Iowa, Wisconsin and Illinois! Can we hope to see them in the Democratic line in ten years? Scarcely. The recent result in Connecticut may, therefore, be set down to the credit of the much abused and maligned "Copperheads."

That is to say, it was a genuine Confederate victory. The paper from which this extract is taken then goes on more at length to show that those States in which its party friends were most uncompromising in their opposition to the war for the Union, will soonest return to Democratic control,—or in its own words, will soonest free themselves from the "incubus of the mongrel party." But those States which gave a vigorous support to the Government are gone from the Democracy beyond all hope of recovery. What, then, becomes of the boasted "loyalty" of that party? If its strength was maintained just in proportion to the vigor of its opposition to the restoration of the Union, (and this is what the Day Book affirms) its devotion to the Union of which it boasts so much, is more than questionable. The paper which has the largest circulation of any Democratic journal in the United States, removes the mask from its party and exposes it in its natural character.

The Late Gen. Stevens and Frank Clark.

We copy the following letter prefaced by the accompanying remarks, from the Weekly Message, a paper published at Port Townsend, W. T. The old friends of General Stevens in Washington Territory should read these things and reflect upon them:

> Another voice of rebuke to Frank Clark comes from the tomb of Chantilly through the living representative of Gen. Isaac I. Stevens! Another letter of endorsement of Alvan Flanders comes from the son of the patriot Stevens, whose sacred memory, and services to his country, have been publicly misused and insulted by Frank Clark for self-aggrandizement. We have already published one letter from young Stevens, sufficiently endorsing the Union nominee for Delegate, but the following is a more complete rebuke upon Frank Clark's sacrilegious use of the good name and fame of General Stevens, is important, as well as being a quietus to the monstrous claims of the Copperhead party to the vote of the soldier who fought in the Union army against the rebellion. After perusing this letter from General Hazard Stevens, if there is a single sane man or old style Democrat in the Territory that is, or ever was, a friend to either Governor Stevens or his patriotic son, who can vote for Frank Clark, he must indeed be utterly lost to every sense of respect for his country, society, and for himself. To what a depth of infamy must those old Stevens-Democrats descend, to cling to such a man as Frank Clark, through blind attachment to the mere shadow of a party name! To such as are not gone into the dishonorable embraces of treason beyond redemption, we say as poor Wiley said under similar circumstances, "Reflect and save yourself from impending ruin:"
>
> WALLULA, W. T., May 18, 1867.
>
> S. D. Howse, Esq., Olympia, W. T.—Dear Sir—I am told that Mr. Frank Clark has claimed in his speeches, that were my father, the late Maj. Gen. I. I. Stevens, living, he would support him (Clark), and that I also will vote for him.
>
> In justice to the dead, I protest against such an assertion. That General Stevens should be invoked from his grave to support the man, who during his life was his bitterest personal and political enemy, who assailed his private character in the most foul and slanderous terms an unscrupulous malice could invent, is monstrous.
>
> From childhood, I was in constant intercourse with my father—accompanied him on his many explorations and expeditions among the Indians; as I grew up, became his companion and confidant; was his chief of staff in the war, and was at his side the instant before he fell, and I have the right to state, and to state authoritively, that General Stevens would never have supported such a man as Clark.
>
> Foremost in the defence of the constitutional rights of the South up to the breaking out of the war; from that moment he was foremost to dedicate his sword to the preservation of the Union; broke all his party ties, parted with many of his warmest personal friends, and alone, and almost unacknowledged, took his place at the head of a regiment. The war over, the rebellion subdued, then, Stevens might not have not have sanctioned extreme measures against the insurgents, for in his nature kindness, generosity and magnanimity held the first places, but he would never have hesitated to impose such terms as are due the nation and necessary for the protection of Unionists.
>
> I support Mr Flanders because he is an able and honest man, well qualified for the position of Delegate; but still more, because he is an ardent advocate of the Northern Pacific Railroad, and if elected will, at least, try to accomplish something in favor of the great want of this country.
>
> Very truly, yours,
> HAZARD STEVENS

FROM LEMHI.—The Boise Statesman publishes the following:

Judge Combs, who left here in tribulation for Lombi, has arrived in Leesburg. He writes, May 3d, that there are twenty-five hundred people in camp, and thinks it will number ten thousand before the summer is over. He is already in possession of mining claims, and in the practice of the law. He appears to be enthusiastic, and says, "Be of good cheer, Lombi will bring us all out." Also: "Tell Greathouse to put on a stage line from Boise City via Malad to Bossburg, striking Birch creek; thence across to Lumbi creek, and down that to Salmon river—the finest natural pass in the world. Nature made it a good road."

STATE ITEMS.

A company is forming in Southern Oregon to return across the plains this summer. They will start in June.

Contracts have been awarded for the delivery of 20 000 lbs of flour at Fort Klamath for the Indian Department at nine cents per pound.

There is great need of rain in Southern Oregon. The Press says they have had numerous "sprinkles" during the last few days, but not rain enough to do any good.

Says the Jacksonville Press: Cohn's quartz mill, on Illinois river, Josephine county, has at length been completed and was to have gone into operation on Monday last. We may reasonably expect some astonishing announcement from this quarter so soon as the managers begin to clean up.

FROM OWYHEE.

The following mining intelligence is from the Avalanche.

NEW YORK AND OWYHEE COMPANY.

By recent news from New York and arrivals of employees we are enabled to give our readers some correct idea of the programme of this Company in which are centered many interests and much business.

W D Walbridge, Esq., whose last year's management for the Company has been fully approved, will be here by the 1st of June in full charge of the Company's business, as he has been elected Superintendent and sailed from New York, May 1st. Mr. R H. Leonard and wife reached here last week, and Mr L. is appointed chief amalgamator, and the mill is now undergoing repairs under his directions. The engine bed is to be taken up and rebuilt; the vats and pans will receive some repairs, and the mill put in order for its full working capacity as soon as possible; also an addition of ten pans will be made this Summer. It is expected the improvements now under way will be completed early in June and the mill put at work.

Charles S. Peck, Esq., who has been in full charge of all the property since last November, and a stockholder in the Company, is appointed Superintendent of the mine, and has received orders to press the work on the tunnel and shaft to an early completion. He informs us that the tunnel will connect with the south shaft in a few days more and that said shaft is over half finished, also, that by the time the mill is ready an abundant supply of quartz will be in waiting. Mr. Peck's familiarity with the mine and constant connection with the Company point him out as most fit for this responsible position, and his faithful labors in behalf of the Company are thus recognized at headquarters.

Geo. Collier Robbins comes out in the employment of the Company, but we are not advised of his duties.

The company intend operating largely, if not embarrassed by litigation, in which latter event it is beyond the knowledge of any one what will be done. As the mine will supply many stamps and invigorate the channels of business to a great extent, we certainly hope it will be worked right along without any crippling interference.

FLINT DISTRICT.

This District is receiving such attention from men of labor, means and scientific attainments that its merits and elements will soon be quite well understood. It is admitted on all hands that it abounds in quartz rich in gold and silver—principally the latter. Mills have been started and some results obtained—though not what the owners know should be. They have well-founded faith and are persevering. The Rising Star ore is the only ore that has been tried by the regular working methods, and has yielded variously from $35 to $171 per ton. This summer is evidently the experimental one in Flint. As now determined, its ores will be practically tried by the common stamp and pan process, and by this including roasting after crushing and before amalgamating; by the Frisberg barrel process and the one of smelting and shipping in a concentrated mass—making in all four separate processes to be applied in the next few months. If any one process is anything near a perfect success, Flint will at once stand among the most prosperous quartz districts. It is believed that much of the ores will pay a profit by the common stamp and pan process, and have the tailings saved up for other treatment.

POORMAN.

Labor has been commenced on the North Extension of the Poorman. The snow-drift at the head of Wolfoot Gulch is a great hindrance to intended operations. Professor Ford considers the prospects fair and such as will justify an outlay of cash in development.

THE PLACERS.

A visit to Jacobs' and Blue Gulches Thursday last enables us to give some definite idea of business therein. Near the head of Jacobs' Gulch, Bell & Sullivan are working about a dozen men day and night. Have two hydrulics with good fall in operation. Ground pays more or less from the top down, and there is a large amount in the claims; averages several feet deep, and is mostly gravel. Jennings Smith, Charley Ingram and others were to have a hydraulic running yesterday; claims located next below Bell & Sullivan's and extending about a mile down; plenty of ground in depth, and a troublesome quantity of boulders where opened. On Blue Gulch at the head, Robinson & Clark are ground-sluicing and preparing a hydraulic. Coleheyor & Co., and have a hydraulic in operation; have plenty of nice ground for working and is prospected to the entire satisfaction of the proprietors. Hooker & Co. have a hydraulic at work a short distance below on ground of similar extent and character. Next below and extending to the mouth of the gulch, are J. F. Dye & Co's claims. Ground-sluicing is the mode of working now, but the hydraulic process will be applied in a few days. In both gulches there is a large surplus of water now and those interested predict a run of two months with pretty good heads. Two months' run day and night will make itself felt in business channels here, and the gold is of a desirable purity. Jordan creek for miles below and above Booneville is numerously populated with industrious Celestials. They will take out much ore notwithstanding the second and the third-hand status of their claims.

Modern Democracy.

The Bulletin's New York letter contains the following paragraph in regard to the dens of filth and vice in that city where the Democratic majorities come from:

> Among the many measures of sanitary reform that have been initiated by our Board of Health, those looking to the cleansing and improving the vile tenement houses retained all over the city have seemed to be of the most vital importance. Clean streets—if we are ever to have such a luxury—will prove of but precious little use as a barrier against epidemic while they are bordered with immense rookeries, where squalid poverty and pestilence engendering filth lie down and get up together from one year's end to another. Impressed with the potency of this fact, our Board of Health early turned their attention to those houses, and were indefatigable in their efforts to render them fit habitations for human beings. But they met with so much opposition from landlords and—strange to say—from the tenants also, while their powers to enforce these sanitary regulations were somewhat circumscribed, that they determined to invoke further aid from the Legislature. A bill was accordingly introduced in the Assembly providing that the Board should have full charge of all the tenement houses in New York and Brooklyn, with power to enforce such sanitary regulations as the health interests of the community might require. One would suppose that a measure intended for the many thousands of wretches and laborers whose poverty compels them to herd together in these filthy dens, would have received the support of that party which claims to be the exclusive friend of the poor man. And yet on the passage of the bill, every Democrat in the Assembly excepting three voted against it. There was, notwithstanding, a large majority in favor of the bill, every Republican present voting for it. The opposition of the Democrats was purely political. The votes of the denizens of these filthy rookeries, who are almost all foreigners, are counted on by the party with as much certainty as John Morrissey's, or August Belmont's, or Fernando Wood's, however fingrant may be the shortcomings of the Democracy toward them. Hopeless ignorance makes them willing slaves.

The Supreme Court of Ohio has decided that the keeper of a billiard table, who receives pay for its use, the money being paid by the loser, is the keeper of a gaming table, within the meaning of the statute.

TO MOTHERS.—MRS WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP for children, is an old and well tried remedy. It has stood the test of many many years, and never known to fail. It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, and gives rest and health to the child, and comfort to the mother. Mosteller, Smith & Dean, Agents for the Pacific coast.

NEGLECTED COUGHS AND COLDS.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "Common Cold," in its first stage, that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected soon preys upon the lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or COUGH LOZENGES, afford instant relief.

"IN CITY OR COUNTRY," in town or hamlet, the FARMER DES COLONS are equally popular. Storekeepers say it is no use to have any but the Rowe & Stevens stamp, for the people know no others, and believe in none. They are equally the best, the most reliable and the cheapest. Smith & Davis, agents.

THIS COMPANY HAVING GREATLY enlarged their Refining Works, and introduced many other important improvements, are pleased to announce that they feel warranted in again reducing materially their terms of doing business.

THE TARIFF OF CHARGES
Which they now submit to the public—considered with reference to the cost of material and labor—is lower than in any other part of the world, and secures to the mining interest of this coast an important increase in both the minting and commercial value of bullion.
Their charges hereafter will be as follows:

FOR ASSAYING DEPOSITS FOR UNPARTED GOLD BARS.

One-eighth of one per cent. (or one ounce a quarter) for all amounts over $1,600, and two dollars for any smaller sum. Returns made in twenty-four hours.

FOR ASSAYING DEPOSITS FOR UNPARTED SILVER BARS.

Two dollars for the gold contained, up to $1,600, and one-eighth of one per cent. for all amounts over that sum, and one per cent. on the silver contained. Returns made in twenty-four hours.

FOR REFINING DEPOSITS MADE FOR COIN OR FINE BARS.

On bullion under 500 parts gold, 2 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 500½@600 parts gold, 4 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 600½@750 parts gold, 5 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 750½@949½ parts gold, 8 cents per ounce.
Above 950 the only charge will be for coinage. But there will be no charge for refining less than two dollars.

FOR COINING GOLD.

This charge will be the same as at the Mint—a half of one per cent.—and which is paid by us to that institution. But there will be no charge in future for making fine gold or silver bars from bullion refined by us.

RETURNS IN COIN IN FORTY-EIGHT HOURS.

Silver contained in deposits for coin will be accounted for at the same rate customary at the Mint.
Gold bars of other Assayers, in good standing, will be cashed by us at the highest market rates.
Dust and bullion can be forwarded to us from any part of the country, and returns made through Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express.

CHARGES AT U. S. BRANCH MINT.

For the convenience of those not familiar with the terms of the Mint, we subjoin the tariff of charges now in force at that institution:
For refining bullion under 300 parts gold, 3 cents per ounce.
For refining bullion from 300½@600 parts gold, 5 cents per ounce.
For refining bullion from 600½@750 parts gold, 7 cents per ounce.
For refining bullion from 750½@850 parts gold, 11 cents per ounce.
For refining bullion from 850½@949½ parts gold, 14 cents per ounce.
The charge for coinage is half of one per cent., and the charge for making fine silver bars, the same.
Comparing the net value of deposits for coinage, with the proceeds of unparted gold bars sold in the market—assuming that the bars have cost ½ of one per cent.—they must be sold at the following par rates to equal the return which would have been made had they been deposited for coinage:
850 par to equal Mint return, at refining charge of 14 cents.
845 par to equal Mint return, at refining charge of 14 cents.
800 par to equal San Francisco Assay & Refining Works return, at refining charge of 8 cents.

THE BASE BALL CONTEST.—As was noticed a few days ago, the First Nine of the Pioneer Base Ball Club of this city, having accepted the challenge of the Occidental Base Ball Club of Vancouver, to play them a match game, left here on the Cascades, at 8 A. M. of yesterday, the President of the O. B. C. having kindly detained the boat until that hour, to enable such of our citizens as desired to go over to witness the game, and to see the Pioneers, and arrived at Vancouver at 12 M., and were met by the Occidental Club, who escorted them to their grounds just in the suburbs of the town, which had been put in splendid order for the match game was called at precisely 0 o'clock, the Occidentals—Capt. McNamara—taking the first inning. The result was as follows:

OCCIDENTAL NINE.

	Innings.
	First.	Second.	Third.	Fourth.	Fifth.	Sixth.	Seventh.	Eighth.	Ninth.
H. C. Morse, 2d base	1	1	1	1	2	2	1	1	1
J. Brand, 3d base	1	1	1	1	2	2	1	1	1
J. Proebstel, 1st base	1	2	1	1	2	2	1	1
Jas. Leahy, catcher	1	1	1	1	2	2	1	1
P. McNamara, (Capt) pitcher	1	1	2	1	2	2	2
C. Glover, right field	1	1	1	2	2	2	3
W. Leahy, short stop	1		1	1	2	2	3	1
A. Glover, left field	1		1	1	2	2	3	1
J. Orr, center field		1	1	1	2	2	3	1	1
	7	8	9	9	20	20	16	6	4

Total runs, 82.

PIONEER NINE.

Total runs, 79.

DeBuff making the only Home Run in the game.

REMEMBRANCE.

Second Nine.—Morse put out 1; Brand 2; Proebstel 3; Leahy 0; W. Leahy 1; Glover 1; Orr 1.

Pioneer Nine.—DeBuff put out 10; Wadhams 2; Witherell 1; Brand 5; Quackenbush 1; Baughman 2.

Second Nine.—Morse was put out on foul 1; Brand, foul 1, 1st base 1; 2d base 1; Probstel foul 2, 1st base 0; Leahy foul 2, 2d base 2; McNamara, fly 3, foul 1, 1st base 1; Patrain, fly 1, 1st base 1.

Pioneer Nine.—DeBuff was put out on foul ball 1, struck out 3, 1st base 0; Wadhams, fly 3, foul 1, 1st base 1; Witherell, fly 1; Brachtel, foul 1; Quackenbush, struck out 1, 1st base 1; 2d base 1; Upton, fly 2, foul 1; 1st base 1; Baughman, foul 1; 1st base 2; Steel, foul 1; 1st base 1; Cook, foul 1.

It should be remembered that the first base player has the whole field to help him, consequently he puts out many more than any other; a majority of these should be credited to the short stop. Outs on fly catches are considered as "earned," while outs in any other manner may be attributed to the fielding of the player.

At the conclusion of the game it was evident there would be a tie. Action on the part of the Occidentals, when the 9th was played according to the rules established by the National Association, of which the Pioneers are members, the Victor in a match game must be chosen from a single number of that body, and E. Backenstos of the Pioneers being chosen to the position. In the second inning a dispute arising, the Occidentals became dissatisfied for a change, accordingly the Pioneers waived their rule, and told them to make their own choice, which resulted in the selection of P. T. Barclay, of the Base Ball Club to fill the position. Mr. Backenstos filling the match ended, and the game proceeded.

In the third inning the captain of the Occidental Nine found his short stop to change positions with the left fielder, without the knowledge and consent of the captain of the Pioneer Nine, which was positively against the rules of the game, but captain McNamara saying that it was all right without his knowledge and consent, Witherell gave his place two fly catchers to which they had been treated. H. P. LEVINS, Scorer.

FOR PORTLAND.—The following is the list of passengers per steamship Oriflamme, which left San Francisco on Tuesday, the 28th, for Portland: Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Tuesday, Jos. Huffman, R. C. Finlay and wife, Mrs. Hastings, wife, nurse, infant and two children, Mrs. Graham, Dr. J. T. Glassellin, Mrs. F. M. Bachelder, child and servant, B M Applebaker, Dan O'Neill, S Bellsmith, Chas H Bugsby, A Spencer, J Elder, wife and two children, Miss M H Peter, Mrs Spencer, H C Perry, J W Wardwick, Mr Frazer and family, S. R. Peterson and wife, F Hirshwell, Mr Blanc, S Mattingly, F E Cook, G W Weaver, Mr Poche, N Lancaster, J W Weatherford, J M Fowler, Senator Corbett and family, Geo H Hall, Miss Biddle and sister, Mrs Samuels, J Teal, S Hall, H Hitchcock, Capt Geo Pease, F Ketchum, Mrs J B Morgan and three children, Mrs May and two children, Mrs O Haugh and wife, Mrs Asie, and 52 in the steerage.

I. O. O. F.—Capt. Addams, Grand Lecturer of the I. O. O. F., will visit a lodge on the 25th inst, at Farmington, Washington county, with twelve charter members. The following is a list of the officers installed: Wm. T. Wilson, N. G.; Miss Rachel Davies, V. G.; Miss Harriet Ford, Sec.; W. V. Tuttle, Asst. Sec.; M. P. Nicholson, W. S.; Thos. Ford, W. T.; A. S. James Campbell, W. F. S.; Miss Mary J. Harris, W. T.; Alfred Davies, W. M.; Miss Sarah Ford, W. C.; Peter B. Schott, P. W. C. T. & I. D. Ford, W. C. T. Miss Rachel Davies writes: "The lodge meets at the church near Glencoe bridge on the Tualatin river, fourteen miles from Portland. It bids fair to be a prosperous lodge, as there are eight or more applications to join at the next meeting of the lodge on Saturday June 1st, at 7 P. M.

WHAT THEY BRING.—Arrived per steamer Senator, from Oregon City, May 29th: 147 sks bran, 22 pkgs wrapping paper, 1,220 qr sks flour, 431 gunnies bacon, 792 sks wheat, 5 boxes produce, 64 bf bbls dried apples, 1 box salmon, 200 bags oats, 7 boxes eggs.

"OUR NEW SENATORS."—The acquisition of Russian America had given occasion for a great deal of newspaper remark, much of it running in a facetious vein, and the pictorials seized upon it as excellent material for comic illustrations. Among the best things of this kind we have seen, is a caricature in Frank Leslie's Illustrated, of April 27th, entitled, "Our New Senators." The picture represents Johnson and Seward in the act of doing the hospitable to a fur-clad Kamschatkan who is bedecked with the savage baggery and trinkets ascribed by popular belief to the people of that northern country, and who holds by a string a seal to which the artist has given a touch of the human look. The Kamschatkan representatives have evidently just arrived at the capital and the man figure is yet in his traveling dress and snow shoes. Mr. Seward bows profoundly and says: "My dear Mr. Kamskatka, you really must dine with me. I have some of the very finest tallow candles and the loveliest train oil you ever tasted, and my whelp's blubber is exquisite —and pray bring your friend My. Seal along with you. The President will be one of the party."

RECORDER'S COURT.—The proceedings in the Recorder's Court yesterday were as follows

Alex McCarty, tried the day before for an assault and battery upon Sam Turner, and in which case the judgment of the Court was reserved till this morning, was found guilty and fined $5 and costs.

The charge against Solomon Stephens and Reuben Simpson, accusing them of permitting a gambling device to be set up in their house, was dismissed on motion of the prosecuting attorney.

The same parties pleaded guilty to the charge of keeping open a tippling house on Sunday, and were fined each $5, and costs.

Sam Turner was tried and found guilty on a charge of disorderly conduct and fined $5, and costs.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Yesterday at Oregon City, a young man employed about one of the saw mills, fell from a staging, a distance of about ten feet, striking across a log and breaking one leg at the thigh. It is broken very near the joint, and when the steamer Senator left it was thought the bones of the joint were injured so much as to render the setting difficult. Drs. Barclay and Saffron were called to the assistance of the young man, and were in hopes that they could adjust the fracture.

PROF. GROH'S CONCERT.—The programme for the vocal and instrumental concert by Prof. Groh and his class of pupils, on the 6th of June, is advertised this morning. It will be seen that the entertainment offered will be an unusually varied one and as the performers are mostly quite young, the concert will naturally create an unusual interest. Many of the pupils are said to have attained to a proficiency which, considering their ages, is remarkable. We predict for this concert a triumphant success.

THE PIC NIC AT THE WHITE HOUSE.—Gen. Steele and several guests went out to the White House yesterday on a pic-nic excursion. The Fannie Troup brought over the 14th Infantry band in the morning and took them, with some of the guests, up to the White House landing. We understand that during the day, there were some trials of speed over the Riverside track, but we have no particulars.

TRINITY CHURCH DIVIDED.—A division of Trinity Church in this city occurred during the early part of the week; but we learn that the prospects of an early reunion are flattering—several carpenters being employed upon the job.

NOT SOLD.—The Commodore Perry was put up for sale yesterday morning by Mr. Richardson, auctioneer, but was subsequently withdrawn by the owner without effecting a sale. The highest bid received, was $1,750.

THE CHESS GAME.—The 4th game of chess in the pending match in this city will not begin till next Saturday evening.

TELEGRAPHIC MESSAGE.—A message directed to A. J. Blake remains uncalled for at the telegraph office.

WE DON'T CARE A FIG WHO BUILDS THE RAILROAD.—Our advice to the people is to go to Barman Bros., on corner of Front and Morrison streets, for their custom-made Clothing.

Something New in Dental Surgery.—Extracting teeth by Dr. Hardman's apparatus, with Ether or Rhigolene Spray, is local in its application, the tooth and surrounding parts only becoming insensible to pain. Those suffering from bad teeth can now have them removed free from pain and without the effects of inhaling chloroform, ether or nitrous oxide (laughing gas).

N. B.—To strangers I would say, that a constantly increasing Dental Practice for the last 6 years in this city, will be a sufficient guarantee for them to receive a First-Class and Finished Piece of Work. Numerous testimonials to the same can be given at the office.

Consumption like the Rattle Snake, always gives warning of its approach. A hacking cough, dull pain in the chest, difficulty of breathing, are the indications that there is more or less irritation of the lungs. If this be neglected, and go on until pustules are formed, followed by tubercles, which sometimes eat off the blood vessels, death will be the result. Allen's Lung Balsam will heal the irritated parts, allay the inflammation, removing the phlegm and matter, thus stopping the cough, and preventing fatal consumption. PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER, after a thorough trial, by innumerable living witnesses, has proved itself the MEDICINE OF THE AGE. Although there have been many medicinal preparations brought before the public since the first introduction of Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer, and large amounts expended to ensure their introduction, the Pain Killer has continued to steadily advance in the estimation of the world as the best Family Medicine ever introduced. It is an internal and external remedy. One positive proof of its efficacy is, that the sales have constantly increased, and wholly upon its own merits. The effect of the Pain Killer upon the patient, when taken internally in case of Cold, Cough, Bowel Complaints, Cholera, Dysentery, and other affections of the system, has been truly wonderful, and has won for it a name among medical preparations that can never be forgotten. Its success in removing pain, as an external remedy in case of Burns, Bruises, Sores, Sprains, Cuts, Sting of Insects, and other causes of suffering, has secured for it such a host of testimony, as an almost infallible remedy, that it will be handed down to posterity as one of the greatest medical discoveries of the nineteenth century.

The Mile Stone

Along a road two Irish lads
One Summer's day were walking
And all the while, with laugh and shout,
In lively strain were talking.

About the fair sex all the girls
And those who were best at dancing
While at each pretty face they met
Their eyes were brightly glancing.

And so they strode for many a mile
They grew in time quite frisky
And now and then from lip to lip,
They passed the darling whisky

As on before them in the hedge,
The road and all surrounding,
The[y] their faces into allies lettered o'er,
A [illegible] standing.

They [illegible] so [illegible] doffed their hats,
With sorrow [illegible]
Then turning, classic oriental awe
They stopped [illegible] paces

"Speak low, we're [illegible] dead," said our,
"His grave we'll not be free
An old man sure! 100, and
His name is Miles from Dublin!"

THE COURSE OF EMPIRE.—No poet is oftener misquoted than Bishop Berkley, who in the 17th century wrote those remarkable, prophetic lines

Thus shall be sung another golden age,
The rise of empire and of arts,
The great and good inspiring epic rage,
The wisest heads and noblest hearts.

Not such as Europe breeds in her decay—
Such as she bred when fresh and young,
When heavenly fire did animate her clay,
By future poets shall be sung

Westward the course of Empire takes it way,
The first four acts already past,
The fifth shall close the drama with the day;
Time's noblest offspring is the last

Lieut. Gen. Sherman---A Thrilling Incident.

Rev. Dr. Bellows, in the Liberal Christian, thus relates a conversation he recently had with Gen. Sherman, in St. Louis:

Gen. Sherman was in California at the period when all the worth, sense and patriotism of San Francisco were converted into unwilling law breakers and an organized mob, by the establishment of the celebrated Vigilance Committee, whose objects were most righteous and whose methods were doubtless justifiable only by revolutionary necessity, if at all. They seized the known and marked ruffians, gamblers and banditti of the city, and without legal judge or jury, hung them from the windows of the street, and with bloody threats drove violently all the rest out of the place. Gen. Sherman was then a banker, but had been educated a soldier. His military conceptions did not allow him to countenance so complete a violation of lawful authority, and single-handed, he stood out against the whole moral weight and wealth of that excited community, insisting upon the peril of such unlawful and high-handed proceedings. I asked him if it did not require a greater courage to face such an opposition than to face a battery? He said it was stern work, but that the greatest demand ever made on his moral courage was under the following circumstances: The citizens of San Francisco were celebrating the Fourth of July in the large American theatre, which was packed to its utmost capacity. Gen. Sherman was chief marshal, and occupied a seat near the front of the stage. The orator had completed his oration, the poet began his song, when one of his aids, white with fear, made his way down the middle aisle to the footlights, and beckoning the General's ear, whispered to him that the theatre had settled a foot and a half in one of its side walls, under the weight of the crowd, and might be expected at any moment to tumble down on their heads in ruins. The General commanded him to sit down just where he was, without turning his panic-stricken face to the audience, and to say not one word. He then quietly sent an aid out to report the condition of the wall, then gave his apparent attention to the poem, expecting every moment, as he said, to see the pillars rolling and the roof falling in; but, nevertheless, certain that any general or sudden movement and affright of the people would hasten the catastrophe and aggravate the ruin, while by the ordinary slow method of dispersion, the danger might possibly be escaped. The exercises continued calmly to the close. The audience left the theatre quietly, without suspecting their peril, and the terrible destruction was averted by the presence of mind, the self-control, the courage of the brave soul who contemplating at one glance all the possibilities of the case, decided, in a divine calmness, upon the policy of duty, and awaited without one betraying glance, or treacherous change of complexion, the uncertain, tremendous consequences.

Can we not understand the march to the sea better for this story? Can we not all the clearer and more inspiringly see the priceless worth of brave and social leaders, of souls that look to God and duty for their guidance, and do not reflect the pains and passions, or the infirmities and follies of their day and hour? God sends us such saviours for our American civilization.

CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN GENERAL POPE AND GOVERNOR JENKINS, OF GEORGIA.—An Augusta (Ga.) dispatch of April 24th says:

The following is the substance of the correspondence between Major General Pope and Governor Jenkins. Pope asks Jenkins if he saw General Order No. 1, issued April 10th, in reference to the organization of States under the Military bill, before he, Governor Jenkins, issued his address to the people of Georgia, advising non-action until the question of constitutionality was decided by the Supreme Court.

Jenkins replies that he had supposed that he was exercising such freedom in the expression of his opinion relative to public matters as seemed to be still accorded citizens of the republic. He did not imagine it was abridged by the accident of the speaker or writer holding office. This, he hopes, will not involve either conflict or controversy between them in the execution of their respective trusts, and he thinks it need not; everything of this character he desires to avoid.

The General, in reply, says Governor Jenkins' explanation is satisfactory as to the past, but, for his own part, being sent to execute the laws of Congress, he will carry out the provisions of the Military bill which recognizes existing State Governments as merely provisional. The object of allowing those to continue was the administration of the State laws during the progress of reconstruction. Had Congress contemplated opposition from the civil authorities, it would have legislated the present State Government out of existence.

General Pope requires that the civil machinery of the State be not so perverted as to frustrate the execution of the laws of Congress. Civil officers are required not to use their influence to prevent the people from submitting to and carrying out the laws of Congress. After discussing the matter fully he says he will be compelled to remove all officers who, while in office, use their influence to prevent the execution of the laws. But he hopes the harmonious relations may continue between the military and civil authorities.

A WONDERFUL OLD MAN.—The following is from the N. Y. Times of April 9th:

Captain Frederick Lohrbutt, formerly of the Sixteenth British Rifles, was entertained at a breakfast on the 9th of March, given by General de Peyster. Generals Warren, Butterfield, Shaler and Crawford and Admiral Farragut were among those present. The occasion was the celebration of the 101st anniversary of Captain Lohrbutt's birth. He entered the British army in 1789 and fought through the war of the Netherlands, the Peninsular campaigns and the Caffre war. He was also one of Napoleon's guards at St. Helena. He sold out in 1818, and has since lived in many parts of the world. He came to New York in 1838 with his widowed daughter and grandson, both of whom are now dead. He is an inveterate user of opium, never having taken less than 24 grains a day for fifty years past, sometimes taking 75, and on one occasion 150 grains at a dose. Once he drank half a pint of laudanum when he could not procure the raw drug. As his birth day falls on the same date as that of General de Peyster, they have breakfasted together for several years. Captain Lohrbutt looks the man of prodigious strength that he is, a slight stoop being the chief mark of age. He goes to bed at five P. M, and rises at two in the morning.

NED BUNTLINE.—The New York correspondent of the San Francisco Bulletin furnishes the following late information relative to "Ned Buntline," the notorious blood and thunder writer

Promenaders on Broadway were not a little amused the other day, at seeing a man of short stature, thick set, and military air, marching up that thoroughfare with a negro behind him, waving quite a good sized American flag over his head The man was readily recognized as "Ned Buntline." Everybody gave way to let the procession pass, and gazed after the remarkable man. Remarkable from the fact of his still being alive, after the hard usage he has given himself Ned always fairly worshipped the "Starry Flag," and vindicated his claim to patriotism in the field during the rebellion. Speaking of Ned, reminds me of Daniel Pratt, the great American traveler. He turned up here a short time ago, with a "policy" which he insisted was far better than those of the President and Congress combined. He went into an office and commenced explaining it. After he had spoken about five minutes he was informed that it would be good "polley" for him to leave instanter, or he would be kicked down stairs. Pratt traveled.

NASBY ON THE CONSERVATIVE LIGHT ELECTION

THE EFFECT IT PRODUCED AT THE CORNERS AND AT WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 7, 1867

The news uv the late cleckshun in the Stait uv Connecticut created the most profound sensashun at the Corners. It cum to us as unexpected, so like a clap uv thunder from a clear sky, or ruther like a gleam uv sunlight thru a mass uv overpowerin black clouds, so like the first streak of sunhite in the mornin after a long nite uv cholera morbus with no brandy in the house. That we wuz over powered with it. The Corners hevn't experimented such a satisfactory spasm of joy since the recent uv the news of the Fort Fisher affair. It perdoost a very singler effect on Deakin Pugram. When I cum up to him with the news, he wuz engaged with all the elokence he possest in tryin to convince a nigger, wich formerly belonged to him, that, after all, the Southerners themselves wuz the only ones wich the niggers cood trust, and that when the time cum for em to exercise the 'reotive franchise, of they hed any regard for their own interests, they wood turn their backs on the Abolitionists, who wuz, to a man, bory headed deceivers, and trust them and them only who knowed em.

"Samyooel," said the Deakin, in a affecshunit tone, with one hand on the nigger's shoulder, "why shoudent we love yoo? Yoo are bone uv our bone and flesh uv our flesh—we are uv one blood—" (this remark the Deakin got into the habit some years ago uv gittin off when speakin uv the Democratic North, and allus uses it. It is rather effektive, tho in the instance, of I hed bin in his place, I shoudunt hev slung it out, owin to the peculiar construckshun wich mite be put onto it) "and our interests is one, Samyooel."

"Deakin," sez I, interruptin him, "Deakin! Connecticut has spoken in thunder tones, and hez gone Democratic!"

"Wa!" sez he, "Democratic!"

"Vorily," sez I, "a Governor and three Congressmen out uv four."

There wuz a sudun rupcher uv the friendly relashuns existin between the Deakin and Samyooel the dark complexioned. If he wuz uv the Deakin's flesh the Deakin wuz in favor uv mortifying it, for never wuz flesh so bonbored or wuz that unfortunit chattel's. The flesh wuz promptly lacerated. He pitched into him feroshus, and after pummelin the astonished Afrikin, who didn't see why the result of a clockshun should work sich a change, till he wuz out uv breath, he condenst wat strength wuz remainin into one vigrous kick, exclaimin:

"Take that, you black swindler. I've talked sweet to yoo under false pretenses. I've bin betrayed into wastin soft sawder onto a nigger—into conzin wher I hev a undoonable rite to command into—"

"Wat does all dis mean?" sed the nigger faintly.

"Mean!" sed I to him, "my friend, this is the roadsun we've heerd so much about—its urriv. It means that there is a exceedingly good chance uv yoor bein redoost agin to your normal speer, uv yoor bein redoost agin to your normal speer, uv yoor bein redoost agin to your normal speer, uv yoor comin down from the high hoss yeve bin a ridin and in bein agin a servant unto your brethren. It means that Connecticut has spoken and that your a good deal more valyeable to us now than you wuz a hour ago. Go, my friend, and buy save for yoor brooses, for unless yoor hosted yoor valyoo will be less in the market. You'd be ashamed to sell for a low price, woodent you?"

I left the Dimocrisy jubilatin and come to Washington, feelin that I must go where I cood find kindred soles. The nite I arrived there wuz high carnival at the White House. The President wuz in tall feather. There wuz Connecticut all over him. He had a wooden nutmeg for a buxum pin—a imitatoor brasswood ham hung from his watch fob—in honor of the occasion they wuz drinkin punches made uv Noo England rum, with small slices uv Westhurfield onyons in em instid uv lemons. Randall sprung towards me as I entered the room and clasped me by one hand, the President by tother, and we then, not altogether unlike three graces, embraced. They hed the advantage uv me, or they hed one odor, the onyon, which I hedn't, but I stood it. Why not, when that odor was from the breths uv those in the appointin power? I wood hev stood it hed they bin eatin assafoetida.

At this juncter Sekretary Welles come in.

"Ha!" said he, "why this unwonted hilarity? Why this joy whor groof generally holds her court?"

"The Connecticut clockshun," sed Seward.

"Oh, to be sure," sed the venorable old man vacantly, "I remember. Hawley, wuz it, or some other man who was elected over—over—wat wuz his name?—our candidate?"

"That was last year," sed Seward, angrily.

"Well, perhaps it wuz. When did that State vote agin?" asked he, innocently, to wich no answer was given. But very little attention is paid to Sekretary Welles' by any one 'ceptin Seward, and the fact that he occasionally undertakes to keep him posted in current events is generally taken ex evidence that he's breakin up. Poor William, it is evident that he's passin into his dotage.

Thar wuz a pleasant gathrin. Cowan wuz thar, and Saulsbury and Garret Davis and Doolittle and Seymour and Brooks, and more congratulatory letters were read than wood fill a page of the Noo York Herald. John C. Breckinridge hoped this auspishus event was the beginnin of good feelin, prosagin, as he trusted it did, the evenish cool triumph uv them wich he had allus been proud to call his friends. Mayor Monroe, uv Noo Orleens, hoped that after this evidence uv returnin reason, President Johnson would not hesitate to remove that second Butler, Gen. Sheridan, who wuz ejus to every friend the President had in the city uv wich he wuz lately Mayor. Gen. Wise sent his congratulations, but ex the okkupied thirty-eight pages uv legal cap paper, closely written, they wuxunt read. Mosby sent a allegoriele pipe made of a corn cob, onto wich was carved a symbolnle niggerswith the American eagle with his claws into his wool, with his congratulations; and Fernando Wood and Jesse D. Bright and Dan Voorhees sent theirn, and Vallandigham wanted to know now whether or not the President wuz goin to accept the situashon and take the Dimocratic party to his buzzum? If so he had a list of appintments for southern Ohio wich he wished made. At this point the question prose whether or not I had not better move my Classicle and Military Institoot to Connecticut. I am a practickle man, and I to wunst asked, ex pertinent to the question whether or not there wuz a distillery in Connecticut, and sockond, whether or not ther was a vacant post offis within four miles uv it.

Sekretary Randall replied, he wooden't hold out indooscments that he coudent fulfill. He was honest. Honesty wuz his best holt—simple, childlike strate forwidnise in his deelins in politix wuz his chief failin, and hed well nigh been his ruin. The first query wuz easy to anser—the electshun returns wood indicate to any man of ordinary intellect that there was distilleries in Connecticut or very handy to the State, but there wuz no Post Offices to spare. To carry the State every man on hed bin solemnly promised.

The President remarked that he really shoodent think that this trifle circumstance wood interfere with givin uv em to other men.

At this pint I broke in. I told em firmly that onless I cood hev a better post offis than the wun I hed I wooden't go. I cood go and cood move wat there is of the college buildns. It wooden cost much to pay freight on that korner stun. I spose a better one cood be got in Connecticut at less than the cost of transportin it, but wherever that Democratic college is built that must be the korner stun uv it. That stun is hallowed. There are tender associashons hangin round it. It wuz the korner stun of a nigger school house wich we helped to the ground thereby we heard uv the vote uv the Civil Rites Bill. But I went go to Connecticut onless my subsistence is asshured. Ther is more money ther than in Kentucky, but I doubt whether they wood support me ez well I speak frankly. I kin understand why a man kin be a Dimocrat in Kentucky—he's interested in niggers. I kin appreciate the Dimocrasy uv Southern Injeany, Illinois and Ohio, coz they come from that region, and the sekund generashun aint got to be voters. I kin understand the Dimocrasy in Keenan's and Fernando Wood's destricts, but pardon me—I want to keep very clear of Connecticut Dimocrats. A people any where in Noo England wich kin deliberately sell themselves to us is just the kind uv people I don't want to be among—I instinctively mistrust a Yankee who hez brokered away his interest in Bunker Hill. I hev notist that a Noo Englander wich come South and married an old maid or a widder with a plantashun, wuz never to be trusted, and it's my experience that a dem nalized Yankee—one who hez shed his early trainin, I took up anybody else's moral close—is about the meanest specimen uv a white man on the face uv the green earth. He hez the accoothic wish is born uv the barren soil, without the Puritanism to keep it within bounds—he possesses the ability to make a livin on his native rox, but his laziness impels him to easier subsistence in milder climes, and instid uv fishin for mackrel, he goes South and fishes for men. A Noo Englander unrestrained by grace is pizen, and I beleev Connecticut is full uv em. I hev heerd Massachoositt religion ridiculed at its authin we may well be thankful for. I never always bin thankful that the Mayflower brot over religion ez well ez brains and will.

Among the Cabinet Dimocrisy I shoop stand no show, no bodie I hev too much self-respect to asshiate with em on terms uv equality. Instid of foreign on them they'd unmage to live on me. I hev lambs to shear in Kentucky, and I don t care about changin em. I dont want to throw cny cold water onto this festive occasion it bein a element we all despise, but hev we any reshurance in her continyoon two? If I understand it, we won by means uv patronage and run on a War Democrat, a boring I, in common with all the true Democrisy, despise. We can't do it again. The honest blast that sweeps from the North will bring to our cars a story uv another kind. One swaller don't make a Spring—I hev knowed uv calves bein born with two heds. The election, I fear me, is one uv those monstrusities with which nature sometimes proddoces to show what she is capable uv. It isn't normal. I hev no objeck shuns to your feelin good over it—it rejoices me, coz it'll give our friends South currage, and may skeer the rudiments into givin us better terms, but—

My remarks wuz interrupted by Saulsbury, who had been surruptitiously drinkin punch with the ladie, and the oder of the onions overcummin him, he crawled under the table, and very shortly after the meetin broke up. I leave for home to-morror ez soon uv I can draw my mileage.

HASTY MARRIAGE OF A DISTRICTED HUSBAND.—We yesterday announced the marriage of one Dr Wight to a Miss Chamberlain. At the last fall term of the Floyd Circuit Court, this man Wight made application for a divorce from his wife, the principal witness against his wife being the woman Chamberlain. Judge Bicknell heard the evidence and refused to grant the divorce, admonishing to the man a severe and merited reprimand for his proceedings in the case.

Wight, however, determined to marry his swift witness, Chamberlain, again sought a divorce in Huntington county, where he obtained it, the court hearing but one testimony—that given by the woman Chamberlain. Having his divorce in his pocket, Wight and the woman Chamberlain were married yesterday.

Wight's wife is a hopeless invalid; at least she was so much invalid as to no longer be able to satisfy the desires of her husband. The other woman probably filled the bill much better. Wight married his first wife when she was young, beautiful, and in good health. She is yet possessed with good looks, notwithstanding the afflictions which hovered over her. She is a lady of rare accomplishments. She was of good family and reputed wealthy at the time of her marriage. But after serving Wight for fifteen years she was put away by divorce, because she was an invalid.

At this wedding yesterday this divorced wife stood beside the woman that was to usurp her place—stood there like a living corpse—like a smitten, withered flower—as bridesmaid—the brides of the witness against her as the suit for divorce, the only witness. If she stood there through compulsion, the curse and blight of the Almighty will follow the husband and his new made wife (formerly his divorced wife's nurse) to avenge the great wrongs of the wretched woman.

Wight and his wife and his divorced wife left the city yesterday. If the husband wife have any feelings of humanity left, this injured woman's pale face will haunt them like a spectre wherever they may travel.—New Albany (Ind.) Ledger April 9th.

ETIQUETTE ON STREET CARS.—The duty of gentlemen toward ladies on street cars is just now attracting considerable attention. "Corry O'Lanus," the quaint humorist, in discussing in the Brooklyn Eagle "Whether the ladies ought to have seats," says:

"I believe they ought.

I always side with the ladies.

When I am in a crowded car, and a lady comes in, I think it is the duty of some other man to get up and give her a seat.

I look around the car to see if any man in the crowd looks like making a move in that direction, and when I see them all keep their seats, I busy myself in my newspaper and blush for my sex.

Some of your male correspondents think that the ladies ought to thunk us for giving up our seats.

Ladies don't you be imposed upon by any such idea.

Get the gentlemen once in the habit of being thanked and they'll always expect it.

Stick up for your rights, ladies, and stand on your dignity.

Dignity is a good thing to stand on when you can't get a seat.

But seats are your rights whenever you can get them.

When ladies attain to the privilege of voting and send members of their sex to Congress, we'll have the Constitution amended to prohibit male creatures from being seated in the presence of ladies.

I think the fashionable style of pantaloons will tend to promote a greater degree of politeness to ladies in cars and ferry boats.

They are so tight that you cannot sit down in them with any degree of comfort or safety."

SUCH STUFF AS DREAMS ARE MADE OF.—The Irish papers contain a romantic story, substantially as follows:

About twelve months ago, a gentleman who resides in the county of Galway, dreamed that he had been instrumental in saving the life of a lovely and accomplished young lady, who would have been dashed to pieces had it not been for his timely aid. The fair one was so deeply engraven on his mind, that, when he awoke, being a tolerably good artist, his first impulse was to make a sketch of it, which he improved from day to day, until it was rendered as perfect as possible. On a bitter cold night, some months subsequently, while the dreamer was comfortably ensconced in an arm chair before a blazing fire, he was startled by the scream of a female. In a moment his overcoat was hurried on and he shortly arrived at the spot whence the cries proceeded. In a deep ditch by the side of the road, a horse was kicking and plunging in a fearful manner, attached to a jaunting car, which was turned upside down. Three persons were quickly rescued from beneath it, and conveyed to the house, where they soon recovered from the effect of the accident. The gentleman who had saved their lives appeared all at once struck by one of the party, a young lady, whom he felt certain he had seen before. The dream was brought forcibly to his recollection, and on entering another apartment, his visitors were more than astonished to perceive the portrait of one of themselves suspended from the wall. The mystery was soon explained, and in two months from that date the dreamer and the fair young lady were married in Dublin.

"I have not loved lightly," as the man said when he married a widow weighing three hundred pounds.
